Saint Brigid's Day – Irish celebration

On the 1st of February every year in Ireland they celebrate Saint Brigid's Day which marks the beginning of the seasons beginning to change from winter to spring.

The students learnt about the meaning of the cross and they got to colour and design them.

Look how beautiful it looks!

3rd year animal project

In our 3rd year science class, we were studying everything you need to know like their classifications and where they live. After all of their hard work we did a fun activity to make animal puppets of their favourite animals and they had to describe them to the teachers in English.

They did a great job!!

The students first started out by unscrambling the words which are related with Valentine's Day. Then they got to colour in a super cute Valentine's Day heart and do a wordsearch with all of the words they learnt.

We also spent a lot of time singing and learning the lyrics to "Love me do" by The Beatles. The students really enjoyed singing and learning new songs.
