OCTOBER

Meet our new Auxiliar for the year 2022-2023!

Hello! My name is Sydney Chanmugam and I am from Baltimore City, Maryland, which is about one hour away from Washington, DC. I am working in CEIP Gloria Fuertes of Jaén this year to help students learn the English language, as well as to share American culture and teach students about the culture and traditions of English speaking places around the world. I am very excited and happy to be here, and I can't wait to get to know all of the amazing students in this school!!

These photos show Sydney teaching our students about the United States and her hometown in the United States – Baltimore, Maryland. She shared pictures of her family, her dogs, her favorite food, and her hobbies. In the picture on the right, Sydney brought her mom to school! Sydney’s mom got to see the students learning during a typical day at Gloria Fuertes. We are so glad we could share our school with Sydney and her mom!

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

The quote for this month’s reflection comes from English playwright William Shakespeare. He lived from April 26, 1564 to April 23, 1616. He was a playwright, a poet, and actor, and is widely known as the greatest writer in the English language, and the world’s greatest dramatist. His works consist of about 39 plays and 157 poems, including Macbeth and Romeo and Juliet. His plays have been translated into every major language in the world, and are performed more often than any other playwright. He is arguably the most influential writer in the English language, and is known as “The Bard.”

Presentation about Halloween in the world

At school, Sydney showed the classes a presentation about how Halloween is celebrated in different countries of the world. She showed them some Halloween songs that people in the United States listen to on Halloween, like “The Monster Mash.” She also showed them some of the typical activities done on Halloween, which include dressing up in costumes, carving pumpkins into jack-o-lanterns, and going trick or treating with friends.

She showed the students the Day of the Dead, a Mexican holiday similar to Halloween that is celebrated in the USA and in Mexico. She taught and revised some Halloween vocabulary with the students (Pumpkin, Bat, Costume, Witch, etc.) Sydney even showed the students what she dressed up for Halloween when she was their age!

Halloween decorations in the school

The teachers and students made some amazing decorations this year!
One class made this spooky wall decoration with paper and paint.

Another class made some banners with a Halloween theme, like pumpkins, ghosts, and monster faces out of paper!

Another class had a poem about a black cat and a witch on their door!

And on Halloween ... the whole school dressed up!

CEIP Gloria Fuertes wishes you a Happy Halloween!
