Information about the neighborhood and city (video)	- Jaén, Spain is a medium-sized city known, among several things, for its amazing olive oil production. –Promotional video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qwHAKUyqJQo - There are plenty of grocery stores and more than several gyms. There are several green spaces for sports, parks, a mall, bike paths, and some hiking paths. There are informal soccer groups, flamenco classes, a climbing gym, local language exchanges, and more. The Universidad de Jaén can also be a good resource, as there are many Erasmus students from around the world who attend as well.
Getting to school	- If you live in Jaén city (highly recommend living in the city), you may be in walking distance to the school. If not, take the bus. -There is a local bus in Jaén run by Alsa. I recommend downloading their app called “Urbano Jaén” which will show you all the bus lines and map, but not arrival times. There is also a website with this information: https://www.transporteurbanodejaen.es/lineas -For accurate bus arrival times, use Google Maps by clicking on the bus stop icons. -Cost: If you don’t have a bus card, it will cost you 1 euro in cash to ride the local bus. A bus card can be obtained at any Tabacos shop or the Caja Rural bank. You will need your passport and a minimum of 6 euro (cash only) to obtain the card. With a bus card, each ride costs 0.37 cents. You can reload the bus card at any Tabaco shop with cash or card.
Accommodation (vídeo) - Where to live in town? - Possibility of staying with a family? - Possibility of sharing a flat with other teachers or language assistants?	- Be prepared for the apartment search to take some time. You will likely need an Airbnb or a similar short-term rental before you find somewhere more permanent. There are many websites and Facebook pages for renting. Searching something like “alquiler piso Jaén” on Google will provide you with a wealth of resources. Similarly, search “alquiler Jaén” on Facebook, and there are many groups for this purpose. -I recommend casting a wide net and using as many resources as possible. Fotocasa or idealista are just a couple of the websites for apartment searching, and you can ask the school for help as well. - Most auxiliares have shared apartments in the past few years. Some have rented an individual room in a local’s house.
