APRIL

This month we are continuing to celebrate spring and new life! At the beginning of April, Gloria Fuertes had a week off for Semana Santa, and we celebrated Easter together last month. This month we are learning so many new things!

E-Twinning Letters

To start the month off, the students received cards from their E-Twinning partners in Bristol to wish them a happy Easter!

Louisa May Alcott: American Author

Louisa May Alcott is an influential writer from the 19th century who greatly impacted American literature. She was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on November 29, 1832. She is most famous for her novel Little Women, but she also has other novels, poems, and short stories. Because she was a woman writer in the 19th century, she was forced to use the pseudonym A.M. Barnard in order to get her work published. She greatly influenced American literature by introducing strong female heroines in her novels and other works. She continued this theme as she joined the women's suffrage movement and contributed much of her work to the fight for women's rights. Her work paid off, as she was the first woman to register to vote in Concord, Connecticut.

International Book Day

At the end of April, we celebrated International Book Day. Teacher Brittany created a worksheet based off of books and authors from familiar places – from the United States, from England, and from Spain. Students also decorated their very own bookmarks! The bookmarks came with English phrases that the students learned.

English Theater: The Camelot School of Magic

This month, the students of 3rd and 4th grade got to visit the theater here in Jaén to see a play in english. The play was called "The Camelot School of Magic" and it was about a witch named Morgana, her friend Arthur, their teacher Merlin, and their guide Gandalf. Morgana accidentally summons a dragon with the new magic she has learned at her new school and has to get help from her friends to get rid of it. They thought they needed a king to defeat the dragon, but it turns out they needed a queen! Morgana is able to lift Excalibur and save them from the dragon.
