Jose Rizal

The quote for this month's reflection comes from José Rizal, a pivotal figure in Philippine history. Born on June 19, 1861, Rizal was not only a nationalist but also a polymath—an accomplished writer, physician, and artist. He spent significant time in Europe, where he became deeply influenced by the ideals of the Enlightenment and the fight for freedom.

His courage and commitment to reform through education and peaceful means have made him a national hero in the Philippines. Rizal's life and legacy continue to inspire many, reminding us of the power of words and ideas in the pursuit of justice and equality.

Presentation about Halloween in the world

Sebastian gave a fun presentation at school about how Halloween is celebrated around the world. He shared popular Halloween songs and talked about some classic activities, like dressing up in costumes, carving pumpkins into jack-o-lanterns, and going trick-or-treating with friends.

He also shared some interactive elements by teaching the students Halloween vocabulary, including words like "pumpkin," "bat," "cauldron," "black cat," and "witch." He took this opportunity to share how Halloween is celebrated in the Philippines, where traditions blend fun and cultural significance. Moreover, he had some Halloween fun activities like quizzes about Halloween.

Later in the class, Sebastian handed out worksheets to color for the students in grades 1-3, and the students were excited to follow the numbered color guide. They found it fun to color the cute black cat in the pumpkin, creating cheerful "Happy Halloween" pages.

For grades 4-6, the students enjoyed a fun Halloween word search featuring the vocabulary words they had learned. It was a great way for them to reinforce their knowledge while getting into the Halloween spirit! The challenge of finding words like "pumpkin," "witch," and "spooky" added excitement to the activity, and everyone had a blast working together to complete it. They also had some spooktacular grammar quizzes during the Halloween presentation!
